MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

THROUGH

: Deputy Director for Support FW 7 DEC 1971

SUBJECT

: The Maurice H. Stans Award for Distinguished
Federal Financial Management

1. An OMB memorandum dated 16 November 1971 to Heads of Executive Departments and Establishments (attached) requested nominations for the Maurice H. Stans Award for Distinguished Federal Financial Management. We queried the Office of Planning, Programming, and Budgeting, the Office of Finance, and the Audit Staff regarding prospective candidates for this award but received no nominations.

2. It is therefore recommended that you sign the attached letter to Mr. Bertram H. Rosen, Executive Secretary, Joint Financial Management Improvement Program, advising him that the Agency will not submit a candidate for the Maurice H. Stans Award this year. The deadline for submission of candidates is 31 December 1971.

FEDERAL TIMES

Official to Receive Stans Award At Financial Management Event

WASHINGTON — The Maurice E. Stans Award for distinguished federal management is scheduled to be presented at the Financial Management Conference, here March 20.

Purpose of the conference is to stimulate ideas and discussions on ways to improve financial management in government, program officials said.

Four agencies join forces to sponsor the event. They are the General Accounting Office, Treasury Department, the White House and the Civil Service Commission.

Among the speakers scheduled to appear is Philip Oliver, director of the CSC's Job Evaluation and Pay Review Task Force. He will talk about Task Force findings.

A yet-to-be-named federal official will give the luncheon address.

Additional information may be obtained from the Management Sciences Training Center, CSC, Washington, D.C. 20415. Registration fee is $20.

Dear Mr. Rosen:

In response to the memorandum from Mr. George P. Shultz, Director, Office of Management and Budget, dated 16 November 1971, we have determined, after careful consideration, that we will not nominate a candidate this year for the Maurice H. Stans Award for Distinguished Federal Financial Management.

We are pleased that this new award has been established and look forward to submitting a nominee in the future for this outstanding recognition.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
